

What is a photographer?

A photographer is the art or practice of taking and processing photographs

What's the basic things they do in a day?

They would....

- Book appointments
- Take photos
- Edit photos

Where do they work at??

—

They work either in a shop or in nature.

What is the average salary?

$36,580

The amount per hour is..

$17.59

What type of education or training do they need order to work in this career field?

They have to have a high school diploma some prefer to have degrees

What is a 'product' of this career produces?

— They produce photos of all types of things
(ex. Nature, people, buildings, etc.)

Ansel Easton Adams

1902-1984

Where did he at working?

How long have been working in this career?

Ansel worked in this career from the 1920's to the 1960's

What college did they go to or where were they trained?

Ansel learned darkroom techniques and read photography magazines, attended camera club meetings, went to photography and art exhibits.

What inspired them to work in this career?

He started experimenting after a trip to Yosemite National Park in 1916.

Why did i choose this person to research?
Why do i think they were a good example?

I saw his work on the internet and I decided to research him and his work. I think he is has the black and white photos.

Other interesting facts....

1. Injured in the San Francisco earthquake in 1906
2. Born on February 20, 1902
3. His nose permanently crooked from the earthquake
4. Educated by private tutors and family members
5. He taught himself the Piano

Jaida's Landscape photo

