

TATTOO ARTIST

the thing they make is artwork on the body and tattoos are the coolest type of art out there there now if the artist is good. i saw my dad get one and at the moment i decide i want to do tattoo.the training that you have to go is you have to get certified from the government that you can do tattoo because if don't change the needle that person before might have something wrong with them and you might get it to that why get certified to make it safe.

The place that he works is dark wood tattoo. he did my dad bulldog on his leg before my dad got ran over at work this something like my dad tattoo the tattoo i want to get is my last name on my back in old english.

The average pay is 32,000 thousand a year it depend on who you work for or do you work for yourself.it depend on how much business they get a year.they have to buy the needles for the the ink and the tattoo gun and the parts for that incase it breaks and rent on the biulding and the property tax
