

Tattoo artist

Definition of tattoo artist

A person who tattoos a design on another person

Work place for a tattoo artist

A tattoo shop , a tattoo studio , or a tattoo parlour

Average salary for a tattoo artist

$32,000 a year

Education or training for a tattoo artist

No college , apprenticeship (not need but recommended) in order to work legally you need a license

Product of a tattoo artist

Most interesting thing about being a tattoo artist to me

Well i love the thought of being able to do something i love , along with something i want .

A person working as a tattoo artist

What is the person's name

Scott campbell

Where are they working

Scott is currently working in New York

How long has scott been working in this career

Scott has been working as a tattoo artist for 11 years

What college did they go to or where were they trained

I haven't found where or who trained Scott but you could go to Artistic tattoo courses

What inspired them to work in this career

As the one before this I haven't been able to find this answer but I can only assume it had something to do with art

Why did i choose this person to research

Well i choose him because i like a lot of his tattoo desing

Why did i think he was a good example

- 1.) i think he's a good example because one he does great work.
- 2.) he gives free tattoos (or they are $1000)

Why do i find this career interesting

Well i find tattooing interesting because it's a way of putting art on your body and i love the fact that i could possibly put my own artwork or someone else art work on my body

Fun Facts

It can cost $1000 for one tattoo from Scott

He gives free tattoos on a person's arm occasionally (they don't know it's him)

Has 3 tattoo exhibits

